

FOIAb3b

SPACE PUBLICATIONS
WASHINGTON, D. C.NORMAN L. BAKER — Publisher & Editor
KENNETH J. SILVERSTONE — Managing Editor

Published five times a week by Space Publications at 1426 G St., N.W.; Washington, D. C. 20005

Subscription rates: $150.00 for one year, $90.00 for six months, $15.00 for one month.

Permission for reproduction of this publication should be obtained from the editors. ME. 8-0500 Cable: SPACE

Tuesday, April 13, 1965

CPYRGHT

Vol. 19, No. 32

RED RABORN NEW SPY CHIEF.

The retired leader of the POLARIS development program and now vice president for program management at Aerojet-General, Vice Admiral William F. (Red) Raborn, has been appointed by President Johnson to succeed John A. McCone as Director of the Central Intelligence Agency. Effective date of appointment has not been determined. To assist Raborn, also newly appointed, is Richard McGarrah Helms, present director of plans for the CIA.

CPYRGHT